

Stackley Devices Limited 1-year Warranty

Stackley Devices builds equipment with quality parts and accurate workmanship. We pledge that the equipment will be free of parts defects and defects of workmanship for a period of 1-year from the date of purchase. During the warranty period contact Stackley Devices if there is any failure of the equipment and we will either repair or replace the equipment at no charge. The equipment user will be responsible for return shipping the items to Stackley Devices headquarters. Because of technology advancements, we may substitute replacement equipment of the same function, but different model number during the warranty period.

This Limited Warranty does not cover any damages to the equipment caused by anything other than parts defects and defects of workmanship. Stackley Devices can not be held responsible for any subsequent or incidental damages caused by use of this equipment, including damages that result in monetary loss. Some states do not allow the above warranty limitations - in that case, the above limitations do not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific rights and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state. This warranty is valid in the U.S. only.
